BANKRUPTCY REFORM

Mr. ENZI. Mr. President, I congratulate the distinguished Senator from Iowa, Mr. GRASSLEY, for all of the work he has done on bankruptcy. He has shown some real leadership and he has pulled a bipartisan group of people together to get this incredibly important work done.

The United States has been saying to other countries that if they were going to get the International Monetary Fund moneys to bail them out, they have to do bankruptcy reform. Guess who are the last ones demanding that other people do bankruptcy reform.

I thank the Senator from Iowa for his efforts on this, the people he has brought into it from both sides of the aisle, and I thank the Senator from Alabama for his incredible record, too.

BUDGET NEGOTIATIONS

Mr. ENZI. Mr. President, I need to address a slightly different issue at this point, to again explain why we are where we are. I began in June with regular speeches about how we were going to wind up in this position: The other side of the aisle was objecting to motions to proceed to appropriations bills and the extended debate we had to have on whether we could debate put the Senate in a situation where we had to do all of our negotiations with the White House, instead of with the House as the Constitution says.

That is exactly what has happened. There has been delay after delay after
